VIENNA.

October 19.

ON Sunday laſt the Emperor and Empreſs went in great State, with a great Train of Noblemen on Horſeback, to our Cathedral Church of St. Stephen, to give God Thanks for the taking of Gaeta. After the Sermon, the Prince Biſhop of Vienna began the Te Deum, which was perform'd to Muſick with a treble Diſcharge of the Fire-Arms of the Guards of this City who were drawn up near the Church, and of all the Artillery on our Bulwarks. After their Imperial Majeſties were return'd from Church, the Princeſs Elizabeth Chriſtina of Brunſwick-Wolfembuttel, was declar'd the Bride of King Charles III. Upon which the Marquis del Vaſto Ambaſſador of Spain, accompanied by the Count de Galves Gentleman of the Bed-Chamber to his Catholick Majeſty, addreſs'd himſelf to the Empreſs-Conſort, deſiring Leave to make a Preſent to the ſaid Princeſs on the Part of the ſaid King: The Princeſs being immediately ſent for to the Empreſs's Apartment, had no ſooner enter'd than the Doors were ſhut, and none permitted to go in but the Counteſs Caraffa firſt Lady of the Bedchamber. The Marquis made a Speech to the Princeſs in the Spaniſh Tongue, and preſented her with a Letter from his Maſter and his Majeſty's Picture ſet in Diamonds, which ſhe receiving return'd the Marquis's Compliment in Spaniſh, and the Empreſs taking the Picture faſten'd it to the Princeſs's Breaſt: Then the Doors were open'd, and the Royal Bride receiv'd the Compliments of the whole Court; and is now treated with the ſame Honours as the Arch-Dutcheſſes are, being allow'd an Elbow Chair, and attended by Officers of the Emperor's nomination, in the Place of thoſe which the Duke of Wolfembuttel had appointed.

Vienna, Oct. 22. The 20th Inſtant, the Cardinal Duke of Saxe Zeits went down the Danube by by Water to Presbourg, with a numerous Train, in Order to take Poſſeſſion as Primate of Hungary and Archbiſhop of Gran. They write from the Waag, that the Field-Marſhal Count Guido Staremberg, was mov'd with his Army from the Camp of Galanta towards the Iſland of Schut: and that Count Berezeni being return'd from Poland, had acquainted Prince Ragotski with the ill Succeſs of his Commiſſion to the Czar of Muſcovy; which had caus'd no little Diſorder among the Chiefs of the Rebels, and their Followers; who appear much diſſatisfy'd with the Conduct of their principal Leaders. Our Advice from Arath on the River Maros, confirm the arrival of General Count Rabutin with the Imperial Forces in the Principality of Tranſilvania: And tell us many of the Nobility have thereupon quitted their Seats and Eſtates and left the Country; conſcious as is preſum'd of their perfidious Carriage towards the Emperour, and fearing the Puniſhment they deſerv'd.

Vienna, Oct. 26. The Maquis del Vaſto Ambaſſador of Spain, to celebrate the Declaration of the Princeſs of Wolfembuttel to be the Royal Bride of King Charles III, his Maſter, and the intire Acquiſition of the Kingdom of Naples by the Reduction of Gaeta; made a ſplendid Feaſt on Sunday laſt in his Palace, caus'd a Comedy to be acted, and gave a Ball and a noble Supper, at which were preſent the Ladies of the Courts of both the Empreſſes, and all the Men of Quality of this Imperial Court: On which Occaſion his Excellency ſhew'd his uſual Magnificence, and the intire Satisfaction he took in ſeeing verified by the Reduction of the ſaid Kingdom, what he had all along foretold and aſſur'd the Emperor of the Affection and Fidelity of the Neapolitans to his moſt Auguſt Houſe. The 24th the Deputies of the moſt ſerene Houſe of Heſſe, receiv'd in this Court with the uſual Formalities the Imperial Inveſtiture from the Emperour, in the Name of their Maſters. Field-Marſhal Count Guido Staremberg is now encamp'd with the Imperial Troops near Galanta; whence they write that one of his Parties of 300 Horſe having paſs'd the Waag, fell upon 600 of the Rebels, and defeated them, killing 130 and taking 50 with 8 Horſes and much Booty; with no more Loſs than of one Officer. By Letters from Conſtantinople we are inform'd, that the Baſha of Sophia Haſſan Ferali being ſent for in great Haſte to the Ottoman Court, made a ſolemn Entry at his Arrival, and was preſented by the grand Viſier with a Caftan and by the grand Signior with a Gown lin'd with Sables: Yet his Joy did not laſt long, for 5 Days after his arrival, that is to ſay, on the 19th of Auguſt, he was ſent for to the Seraglio, and all Men thought he would be made Viſier; but on the contrary, being ſtop'd between two Doors, he was Strangled three Hours after. The Cauſe of his Misfortune was not made publick: He was a Man much eſteemed in the Ottoman Court for his Experience in Affairs of State. On the 21ſt of the ſame Month of Auguſt, arriv'd at Conſtantinople the Galley of Haſſan Baſha of Negropont, having on board a good Number of Calabrians, Men, Women, and Children, which were made Slaves by Gianum Haggia in a Deſcent he made on the Coaſt of Calabria by Night, in which Attempt however the Turks loſt many Men: The ſaid Slaves were publickly expos'd to Sale. A Polander was likewiſe arriv'd at Conſtantinople, who pretending to be ſent by King Staniſlaus, had Audience of the Grand Viſier the 15th of Auguſt; but 'twas not known whether he would obtain an Audience of the Grand Signior.

True Spectacles and Reading-Glasses made to the greatest Perfection, by the use of which young Persons may preserve their Sight to the greatest Age, and which from the Cristal Clearness of the Glass and Truth of the Work supply the want of Natural strength, preserve and to assist the weakest Eyes so much as to render the Person capable of doing the finest of Work, and Reading the smallest Print. It is to be observ'd that a weak Sight suffers more in one year without then it will in 4 with the use of these Spectacles, they being ground on true Brass Tools, according to the approv'd Method of the Royal Society. But the common sort of Spectacles being ground on false Iron Tools, and made of a darkish or else of green Glass, are so far from preserving that they are really injurious to the Sight. Telescopes made to so great a perfection that a small one for the Pocket will take in a larger Angle, discover things at the remotest distance, and make them appear as near as most of large common ones of 4 Foot long; by the assistance of which small Telescope you may tell what a Clock it is by such a Dial as Bow or St. James's above 2 Miles, and other Objects though at 20 or 30 Miles distance proportionable; it being the pleasanteft and usefuleft Instrument of this kind, and so esteem'd by Gentlemen that some have bought 2, 4, and 6, one after another.
